Submitted:

Memo No.N.T.24426 dated the 8th November 1950, from the Assistant Comptroller, disallowing my C.A. of Rs.18-1-0 for the period 13th October 1950 to 29th October 1950 on the ground that I was on Special Duty at Mysore and was not discharging the duties of the Registrar.

2) I was not relieved of my duties as Registrar. I was looking after the important items of work of the Registrar in addition to the duties of the Special Duty Officer as it was being done hitherto. I have been maintaining a car in good condition and using it.

3) Under Article 530(a) of the Mysore Service Regulations a permanent conveyance allowance is not forfeited, during absence from Head Quarters, and may be drawn in addition to any other travelling allowance admissible under these rules.

4) In these circumstances I request that the Accountant General may be authorised to admit the Conveyance Allowance which has been disallowed.

The Special Duty is recurring. The underlined point however is that no extra cost should be caused to the State by two officers claiming it. I was in charge of the Regn. duties during the period. Though it was 6 hours additional work every day in the period, I am not claiming the C. A. or any other allowance. Permission may therefore be granted to the Permanent Regr. drawing the C.A. in the period in question, the A. G. being informed that the officer placed in charge will withdraw it & that no extra cost will be caused.
